WRITE 'YES OR 'NO'

Together, for a better future. Vote Yes.

VOTING YES MEANS

- Recognising Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in our Constitution through a Voice.
- Listening to advice from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people about matters that affect their lives, so governments make better decisions.
- Better results for Indigenous health, education, employment and housing, so people have a better life.

HOW WILL THE VOICE WORK?

When we listen to people about the decisions that affect them, we get better results.

For the past 250 years, we haven't properly listened to the people who have been here for 65,000. It's time we did.

When Parliament or the Government want to improve outcomes for Indigenous Australians in areas like health and education, they'd ask the Voice to come up with the best solutions that will actually work and make a real, practical difference.

Parliament and Government can choose to listen to that advice, or not - and ultimately make the final decision.

It's a simple and practical way that this referendum can create a better future - together.
